The One Income Plan

by Frugal Home Lover

The colors, type, logo and photo rules that make every page, email, printable and image look like it came from the same warm kitchen table.

spend with intention. save with purpose.

Prepared by Genasys, Boss Lady Bloggers ◆ for Brooke

01 ◆ THE BRAND IN ONE BREATH

A faith friendly money plan for one income families.

Built on Brooke's own story: paying off $34,000 in debt on one regular paycheck while staying home with her children.

The reader is a stay at home mom who feels overwhelmed and quietly ashamed about money, and who hopes something can finally work. Every image is made for her, never at her.

Five things every image must carry.

Warm and steady

Sincere. Never slick, never cold.

Real life

Lived in kitchens, worn notebooks, actual daylight.

Hopeful

Progress over polish, never perfect.

Calm

Uncluttered, with one small spark of joy.

Faith friendly

Warm in tone, never preachy in imagery.

THE IMAGE CHECK

Does this look like a real moment in a real home that a tired mom on a tight budget would recognize as her own? If it looks like a finance stock photo, start again.

One coral dot. One name. One handwritten line.

The One Income Plan

by Frugal Home Lover

The One Income Plan

by Frugal Home Lover

Primary

Coral dot, then The One Income Plan in bold Georgia, deep sage, with by Frugal Home Lover in Caveat, deep coral.

Reversed

On deep sage, switch the name to cream and the script line to soft coral. The dot always stays coral.

Always together

"by Frugal Home Lover" stays with the name in every header. It ties the plan to Brooke's home brand and sets it apart from similar names.

Give it room. Keep it simple.

The One Income Plan

by Frugal Home Lover

Clear space on every side equals the height of the capital T. Nothing crosses into it.

- Sits on cream or white. Deep sage only in the reversed version.
- Smallest size: 140px wide on screen, 1.25 inches in print.
- The tagline spend with intention. save with purpose. lives in footers and seals, not in the logo.

Never

- Add an icon, piggy bank, coin, leaf or any illustration. The coral dot is the only mark.
- Drop "by Frugal Home Lover" from a site or email header.
- Recolor the dot, or set the name in Caveat or DM Serif Display.
- Stretch, outline, shadow or put it on a busy photo.
- Use the old Purposeful Pennies wordmark anywhere. It retired on Oct 28, 2026.

Sage anchors, cream grounds, coral sparks, gold celebrates.

07 ◆ COLORS THAT BREAK THE BRAND

Kitchen, not bank.

None of these belong in an image, not even as a small detail.

Corporate or navy blue of any shade. It reads bank.

Cool gray, silver, chrome, anything metallic.

Neon, fluorescent, high saturation brights.

Pure black. Use charcoal.

Hot pink, purple or teal. A different brand.

Cold white light, blue hour, office fluorescents.

Three voices, each with one job.

GEORGIA ◆ STRUCTURE

Aa

A peaceful plan for one income families

Headlines, body copy, buttons and navigation. Bold Georgia in deep sage is the brand headline. Body text is charcoal at a comfortable size.

CAVEAT ◆ THE HUMAN TOUCH

Aa

hi, friend
by Frugal Home Lover

Emotional asides, the tagline, greetings and sticker text. Coral. Used sparingly, never for paragraphs.

DM SERIF DISPLAY ◆ NUMBERS

$34,000

15 min ◆ 01

Statistics, money amounts, minutes and step numerals only. Gold. Never body copy.

09 ◆ TYPE IN USE

How the three work together.

- One Caveat moment per section, usually a greeting or an aside.
- Headlines in sentence case. A coral squiggle under the key phrase.
- Numbers in DM Serif Display gold, even mid sentence.
- The diamond ◆ is the only separator. Zero em dashes, zero en dashes.
- Never use: hustle, boss babe, girlboss, manifest, abundance mindset.

The small marks that make it feel like Brooke.

Squiggle underline
Coral, loose, one wave under a key phrase.

Sparkle star
Gold or coral, sparingly, on deep sage bands.

Sticker badge
Tilted 2 to 3 degrees, hard offset shadow.

Pill button
3px hard shadow in the darker shade.

Card
White, 12px corners, soft sage shadow.

Color glow
Coral blush or soft gold behind heroes.

Diamond separator
Replaces every dash, everywhere.

Confetti
Celebration moments only.

Illustration, if ever needed: flat and warm, slightly textured like gouache, palette locked to the four families, outlines in deep sage, never black. No mascots, no vector business people, no 3D.

A real moment someone happened to catch.

Light

Natural window light from the side. Soft morning or golden hour. No flash, no studio light.

Composition

Shallow depth, one clear subject, generous cream space for copy, a little off center.

Setting

A modest family kitchen. Kids' art, a worn notebook, a chipped mug, a small plant.

People

A warm mom in her thirties in sage, cream or tan. Mid laugh, never posed. Hands doing real things.

The quick photo check.

ALWAYS	NEVER
✓ Warm natural window light	✕ Stock photo posing or fake laughter
✓ Real, unposed, slightly imperfect moments	✕ Piggy banks, coin jars, cash, dollar signs
✓ Modest, lived in family homes	✕ Calculators, charts, spreadsheets, graphs

✓ Flowers, plants, a candle, a coffee mug	✕ Cold blue, gray, neon or metallic tones
✓ Calm faces with quiet hope	✕ Shame: stress, tears, hands in face, red ink
